FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, view both the microfilm catalog Black Studies: A Select Catalog of National Archives Microfilm Publications and the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 133 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1904, are reproduced the records of the Kentucky headquarters for the Assistant Commissioner and his staff officers and the subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters sent and received, monthly reports, registers of complaints, labor contracts, and other records relating to freedmen's claims and bounty payments. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their family or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. Based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers, he prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction. The Assistant Commissioner also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, it was often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN KENTUCKY

ORGANIZATION

From July 1865 until June 1866, Maj. Gen. C. B. Fisk served as Assistant Commissioner for both Kentucky and Tennessee. Fisk appointed Bvt. Brig. Gen. John Ely to serve as chief superintendent for the Bureau at Kentucky (from March to June 1866). Ely established his headquarters at Louisville, Kentucky, and divided his operations into five subdistricts: Lexington, Louisville, Northwestern, Southern, and Central. Records relating to Kentucky created prior to Ely's tenure may be included among the files of the Assistant Commissioner for Tennessee.

In June 1866, Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis was appointed as the first Assistant Commissioner for Kentucky. Superintendents (or subassistant commissioners) employed under Davis were generally responsible for from 3 to 11 counties, and agents (civilian and military) from 1 to 3 counties. Agents received their orders directly from superintendents, and all superintendents were required to submit monthly reports of their activities to the Assistant Commissioner. Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank succeeded Davis in March 1867 and was replaced by Maj. Benjamin Runkle, who served from January 1869 to May 1869 as Assistant Commissioner and superintendent of education. In August 1870, when superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, Runkle served as claims agent for Kentucky until July 1871. H. H. Ray succeeded Runkle as claims agent, and served in this capacity until December 1871. P. J. Overley became the claims agent in January 1872 and remained in this position until the Bureau's operations in Kentucky were discontinued in April. The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau at Kentucky included those with headquarters at Bowling Green, Lebanon, Lexington, Louisville, and Paducah. For a list of known Kentucky subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

ACTIVITIES

While the Freedmen's Bureau did not begin full operations in Kentucky until June 1866, its activities in the state generally resembled those conducted in other Southern states. The Bureau supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, assisted freedmen in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen legalize marriages, and worked with black soldiers and their heirs in processing claims relating to military service.

The regulation of written labor agreements between planters and freedmen was a major concern of the Freedmen's Bureau. In a circular issued on July 24, 1865 (Circular Number 2), Assistant Commissioner Fisk told his subordinates that for both Kentucky and Tennessee freedmen must be free to choose their own employers and that wages were to be based on supply and demand rather than a fixed rate. Bureau officials were to negotiate and approve labor contracts and enforce violations by either party. Compulsory unpaid labor was strictly prohibited. In some areas of Kentucky, planters refused to enter into written agreements with freedmen, and freedmen themselves were reluctant to enter into annual agreements for fear of being reduced to slavery. However, with strong reservations, Bureau officers negotiated monthly agreements for them but encouraged freedmen to sign annual contracts that offered yearlong employment. Wages for monthly contracts ranged from $8 to $10 a month for adult male field hands, well below the state's average wage of $15 a month for men. However by the summer of 1866, with the Bureau's insistence, adult laborers in the tobacco region of the state received $25 per month and laborers in the farm belt areas earned $12 per month. In some Kentucky counties, freedmen received a third of the crops rather than wages. However, because of the shortage of laborers in the state, freedmen were able to demand higher wages, and thus over time the sharecropping system became less attractive.¹

The Bureau worked to protect the rights and legal status of freedmen, which, despite the ending of slavery by the 13th Amendment, were still endangered by the persistence of the old slave codes. On May 30, 1865, Commissioner Howard issued Circular Number 5, authorizing Assistant Commissioners to establish courts in states where the old codes existed and the right of blacks to testify against whites was prohibited. Gen. Fisk subsequently announced to the citizens of Kentucky that freedmen courts would operate in the state as long as freedmen weren't given the same rights as whites. By 1867, as a result of several Federal court rulings, Bureau courts ceased to operate in Kentucky. When state courts denied black testimony, the agency, under provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1866, took cases involving freedmen to the U.S. District Court of Kentucky. In instances where freedmen lacked resources to pursue their cases in Federal court, the Bureau provided transportation for witnesses and other forms of assistance. Despite the Bureau's efforts to safeguard rights and secure justice for freedmen in Kentucky, admitting the testimony of blacks against whites still remained an issue in 1869 when Bureau Assistant Commissioners and their subordinates were withdrawn from the states. However, in January 1872, with a change in public opinion and pressure from the courts, the Kentucky State Legislature amended state law and allowed blacks to testify.

When Gen. John Ely began his duties as chief superintendent for Kentucky under Gen. Fisk's supervision, there were 30 freedmen schools and more than 2,000 students. The schools were organized and maintained by black churches, with black clergy as instructors. Freedmen schools faced widespread violence and white opposition, and in many cases, teachers and students were forced to abandon efforts to maintain school buildings. Ely and his subordinate assisted freedmen in reopening schools that had been forced to close.² Under Maj. Gen. Jeff C. Davis, who replaced Ely in the summer of 1866, the number of freedmen schools increased to 54, with some 67 teachers and more than 3,200 students. Excluding the schools established at Lexington and Covington under the auspices of the Cincinnati Branch of the Western Freedmen's Aid Society and the Cincinnati Branch of the American Missionary Association, the freedmen schools were taught by black teachers who were supported by subscriptions from parents and black religious institutions. The Bureau, however, rented the building for the school at Lexington. Under Brig. Gen. Sidney Burbank, who succeeded Davis in March 1867, the number of freedmen schools increased to 96, accommodating about 5,000 students aged 6-18. By

September 1868, in spite of continued violence and opposition, the Bureau had provided support for 135 day schools and 1 night school, serving more than 6,000 students.³

On February 14, 1866, the Kentucky State Legislature passed an act legalizing marriages freedmen had entered into during slavery and authorizing black ministers to solemnize such marriages. Nearly 2 weeks later, on February 26, 1866, Assistant Commissioner Fisk issued Circular Number 5, in accordance with the Kentucky law, directing those freedmen who sought to solemnize a marriage to the county clerk for a marriage license. If the county clerk refused to issue a license, Bureau officials in the subdistricts were authorized to solemnize marriages and issue marriage certificates. Local Bureau officers were required to maintain a register of freedmen marriages and forward a report of such marriages to the Assistant Commissioner at the end of each month. Subordinate Bureau officers were also told to notify persons living as man and wife who had not legalized their marriage, to report to the Bureau to take the necessary steps to do so. Persons who failed to comply were guilty of a misdemeanor and were to be punished by a fine and imprisonment.⁴ This microfilm publication reproduces marriage licenses, certificates, and registers of marriages for the Kentucky subdistricts at Augusta, Bowling Green, Columbus, Cynthiana, Owensboro, Paducah, Mt. Sterling, and Winchester. A single freedmen marriage license and a marriage certificate from Kentucky, filed in the Bureau's headquarters records, has been reproduced on roll 1 of National Archives Microfilm Publication M1875, Marriage Records of the Office of the Commissioner, Washington Headquarters of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1861-1869.

In addition to assisting freedmen in solemnizing slave marriages and efforts to sustain the black family, the Bureau helped discharged soldiers, sailors, marines, and their heirs in claims for back pay, bounty payments, and pensions. In accordance with a law passed by Congress on March 29, 1867 (15 Stat. 26), making the Bureau the sole agent for payment of claims relating to black veterans, Bureau disbursing officers assisted freedmen in the preparation and settlement of military claims. In November 1866, in spite of the difficulties in locating veterans who fled the state for fear of violence, Assistant Commissioner Davis reported that he had forwarded more than 260 black soldiers' claims for back pay and bounty payments to Commissioner Howard's office in Washington, DC. In the following year, Assistant Commissioner Burbank reported that his office had assisted nearly 500 veterans with military claims, and in the fall of 1868, for the year ending October 10, 1868, that more than 1,100 received bounty payments through his office.⁵

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, registers of freedmen court cases, special orders and circulars issued, registers of claimants, registers of complaints, marriage certificates, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, and general orders and circulars received. The unbound records also contain monthly reports; labor contracts; marriage certificates, and records relating to claims.

Some of the volumes contain more than one type of record, reflecting a common recording practice of clerks and staff officers of that period. On roll 93, for example, the volume of contracts for the Columbus field office also contains a register of marriages. Some other examples of additional series within volumes can be found in records on rolls 106, 123, and 133. Researchers should read carefully the records descriptions and arrangements in the Table of Contents to make full use of these documents.

RELATED RECORDS

In the same record group, RG 105, and related to records of the Bureau's field offices for Kentucky, are those of the Bureau headquarters in Washington, DC, and previously microfilmed records of the Assistant Commissioner and the superintendent of education for Tennessee. These record series are available in the following National Archives microfilm publications:

Records in other National Archives record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821-1920, RG 393, are records of the military district that included Kentucky. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865-1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with bank branches in Kentucky.

Registers of Letters Received

The twelve volumes of registers of letters received are dated March 1866–April 1872 (1–12). Entries in the first nine registers, March 1866–February 1870, are arranged alphabetically by initial letter of the surname of the correspondent and thereunder chronologically. However, each register does not contain all alphabetical divisions. For example, the “As” are in volumes (1), (3), and (9) only, and the “Gs” are in volumes (1), (2), (3), (6), and (9) only. The volume listings below show the initial letters of surnames included in each volume. The entries within each alphabetical division are numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year, but don’t always span the time period listed below.

The last three registers, January 1870–April 1872, are arranged by time period. The entries in volumes 10 and 11 are arranged alphabetically by initial letter of the surname of the correspondent and thereunder in chronological order and numbered. The entries in volume 12, July 1871–April 1872, are arranged in chronological order and numbered with a separate numerical sequence for each year. The name index to volume 12 is volume (13) above. The letters received relating to the registers, March 1866–February 1872, are listed below.

Sir -

Referring to your communication of the 14th inst. in connection with letter of Second Lieut. Drake of May 16-1871 - calling for additional evidence in the case of Washington Drake, Alias, William's late Part. Co. B. 100 Regt. I. I have the honor to inform you that Allen Drake, father of said children of said Soldier is living in Louisville Ky.

I am unable to find any one, who has a knowledge of the facts required. As said Drake is a person of some prominence in the "Coca element", a letter through the P. & would undoubtedly reach him - It will be impossible to investigate the case without his presence - I will retain the papers for further advice -

Very Respectfully

To Mr. Drake

WAR DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN, AND ABANDONED LANDS,
Washington, June 1, 1871.

CIRCULAR LETTER.]

Many claims of colored soldiers, sailors, and marines have heretofore been collected for the claimants without charge to them. An appropriation was asked of the last Congress for the continuance of this work as well as for the payment of bounties. The estimate of the Commissioner was reduced more than one-half in the House of Representatives. It will therefore be necessary to discontinue the collection of claims without charge on the first of July next. If, however, the claimants desire, this Bureau will collect their claims, deducting from each the fee allowed by law to attorneys to pay the necessary expenses.

By Joint Resolution of Congress, approved July 26, 1866, the following scale of fees is prescribed: "For the preparation and prosecution of claims for, and the collection and remittance of, all sums not exceeding fifty dollars, the sum of five dollars; for all sums exceeding fifty and less than one hundred dollars, the sum of seven dollars and fifty cents; and for all sums exceeding one hundred dollars the sum of ten dollars." The expense of necessary notarial fees will be borne by the claimant.

But any claimant whose claim has been filed through this Bureau, and is now pending, may designate any other agency for the prosecution of his claim, when all papers on file relating to the case will be transferred to said Agent on the written application of the claimant. All who desire to transfer their claims to other agents are requested to do so without delay.

By order of Brigadier General O. O. HOWARD, Commissioner:

show the honor of just having red your reply in the care of Mary Martin claim. the widow of George Martin Co of 100th Regt. who was attached $342.30 as per certificate No 581455. - 5th May 71 - and placed in the hands of Chapman Karmu & Co.

This is the care in which Mary Martin never putting in her with any person but me and I think you will find it so -

Mary belonged to the Tyler family a family of very high standing Mark Tyler was grand Master of the Masonic grand Lodge of Kentucky and died while in office I was at his funeral Mary always lived with them they were very much attached to each other they were the persons by whom she could best prove she was the widow of George Martin and I surmise I thought she should go to St Louis to put in her claim -

She came to me. stating she was unwilling any person but me should have anything to do with her claim that some bad lawyers of bad days wanted to prepare her papers but she would not tell them - that her friends advised her to me Mary is a truthful woman and I stand high in the Tyler family -

Miss Chipman Kerner Ho had many Sub agents throughout the country and I think you will find some one of them Sub Agents have imposed upon them

I have written to Mary and will send you some evidence when I can in a few days and in the meantime would I not believe the payment should be withheld for a short time -

With all due respect your friend

Dear Sir:

In the case of Richard Tarte, whose certificate I obtained from Geo. H. Wood of Malone N.Y. formerly Claim Agent at Cairo, Ills. and sent to the Bureau some six weeks ago, I wish to say that both Tarte and myself need the money badly. I have paid out for Tarte as follows. To Wood fees $14.40, advanced ^{by Wood.} $10.00. To Cantwell & Sanders, Atty's Malone, N.Y. fee $10.00. On an Execution for Tarte to save one of his horses $13.50. Paid for coffin for his child $3.50. Amt. $37.40. Tarte lately lost one of his horses, and his note with lien on the horse for $25⁰⁰ is due, to replace it.

Under these circumstances could you not send the vouchers & check to Col. T. J. Pickett the Post Master here as requested by Tarte when the Certificate (No. 476.930 for $187.40) was sent in.

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 3rd inst. inviting my attention to certain irregularities connected with the business of this Office. The following explanation is tendered.

The Mail from Louisville is ready for distribution in Lebanon at one o'clock P. M. Upon the receipt of any official communication from you, requiring immediate answer - it is attended to at once, & deposited in the Office the next morning with any other Mail Matter, on hand, for transmission by the daily train. The letter alluded to was written on the 26th Oct. The next day, I was down with the Chills & did not get to the Office until the 2nd Inst. hence the delay.

In regard to the name of Harrison Hogan Co. & S. O. Co. I keep a list of applicants, writing across each name, as they come in, thus:

Harrison Hogan Co. & S. O. Co. - Ray 14 14 Sept 15 1871.

The Memo - in red ink, indicating the date on which the application is forwarded to your Office: On referring to the list.

the day on which said letter was written, to ascertain whether previous application had been made in this case.

There was no memo to that effect, & concluded rather hastily, it would appear, that his name had been overlooked - & so forwarded it with the others -

I trust that the explanation will be considered satisfactory.

Very Respectfully

Sir

Some papers of the 2nd inst came to hand last evening. Have to say only, that the vouchers attached to, if mutilated record their mutilation after they left my hands. I wish you had them on hand. I would be glad that you will bring them down with you. When you come I will be pleased in directing you to the different places of residence of the criminals, as it will be difficult to get the information from any other person, if you will call on me.

In an instrument also your signature, you say, a first voucher void, I will settle in Col Russell's hands for signature."

This sentence I cannot understand the meaning of. Hope you will explain.

Respectfully Yours

Am W^m P. Drew
Chief of Pay Division
Treasury Bureau & A L

Sir

I write at instance of Perry Haggard late private Co "I" 109th Regt U. S. Colored Infantry. A Treasury Certificate ^{for $563.15} was issued to him for additional bounty for $100.
He says that he has never received one cent coming to him of said Certificate.
He says ~~that~~ he has been informed that some body has been paid said Certificate, by representing ~~himself~~ as Perry Haggard late private Co "I" 109th Regt
U. S. Col^d Infantry.

I send you the blue letter that was sent to me as his attorney. What steps must said Soldier take to obtain his money? Your prompt and early attention is respectfully asked.

Very respectfully

Sir,

Some months ago - last spring I think, at the request of a colored man, John Fields late Corp. 34th U.S.C. Troops I sent his discharge to Capt Graham at Louisville for the purpose of finding out whether there was additional bounty due on it. Nothing has been heard from it since, and Fields is getting uneasy lest it has been lost. Capt. Graham I was ordered to the

as I learned that you had

Hon H. H. Ray -

Sir - I received your letter by last night's mail requesting information in the case of Fanniah Penick - I mailed yesterday to you the proof of nonpayment of her bounty - thinking perhaps it would not be necessary for her to be there in person - she is very needy and unless it is positively necessary for her to be there in person - she would be glad to be relieved of the expense of the trip - However if it is required that she should appear in person she will come immediately - after being notified -

Her claim was prosecuted by my late husband Gen'l S. A. Spencer - after his death I was appointed Administratrix of his Estate - and a great many of Penzions and bounties cases were left unfinished all of which I have to have attended to - it is for this reason that she applied to me to have her case attended to -

She lives near me and I have always considered her an honorable and truthful woman - Please let me hear from you immediately -

I was notified to send Diley Hicks to Louisville - she lives some distance from here I notified her about two weeks ago but have not heard that she has gone -

Hoping they will meet with success and get their just dues - I remain

Sir -

Joannah took her passage in the stage - and paid her way and directed the stage Agent - to send the stage for her - but she was disappointed and the stage went off and left her - I hope however you can make some exception in her case - she had tried faithfully to make her arrangements to get there before - I hope she will not be too late - I hope her proof will be entirely satisfactory - and she can get her just rights—

Enclosed I send you an opinion of the 2^d Auditor in the case of James Claypool the mistake you made was that the bounty was allowed under the act of 64 instead of 1866. & therefore the children are entitled, if none then brothers & sisters or next of kin. Therefore I have been required to have an Administrator appointed so that he could distribute according to law. In this case one is appointed your early attention will much oblige the parties

December 23rd 1871

Sir:

Some two weeks since I received a letter dated at Bowling Green Ky, written by one J. W. Campbell requesting me to call and see him alone as he had some business to transact with me -

Upon the receipt of this letter I requested a gentleman friend of mine to read it also, as I had been a slave up to the breaking out of the war, & had learned but little in that line since enjoying my freedom -

According to the said Campbell's request I took the train to B. Green & upon my arrival instead of going to see him alone as he requested I took a colored friend along with me as I had been informed by those of my own color he would have no objection. His letter was handed to him in the presence of my friend & instead of returning it, he tore it up - He stated that he wanted me to sign some papers which I suppose was for the purpose of getting my bounty, though I had not been informed by Mr Wright. Now had he sent me my certificate or "Blue Letter" which should have passed through him to me, that I might present it to the disbursing officer when requested to meet him ^{for payment} ~~that I should be paid~~.

I refused to sign the papers before getting the certificate, so I returned via of Russellville the same day, at which place ~~was~~ Wright. My ^{Atty} resides & called on him for the certificate or "Blue Letter". This seemed to make him a little uneasy, & he said it was lost -

The ^{at B. Green} ~~old~~ people here have been heated so badly by this man Campbell ~~he~~ was determined not to accept mine until I received a statement from Washington as to the amount due me -

~~I omitted to say that after I had called on Campbell at the time he tore the~~

I omitted ^{to say} that I called to see the Sarge Campbell the second time ^{alone} & asked him what he wanted to see me particularly for, this he denied, whereupon, I told him the letter he had destroyed wasn't so, he denied it the second time.

I have no confidence in him I respectfully request - that you inform me of the amount I am entitled to.

I was a Soldier in Comp D. 108.
U.S.C Volunteers, mustered into the service by Captain
A.G. Hobson who will vouch for me

My P.O. Address will be after this date Armistead Station Sagon County - Ky -

He is employed some 22 miles from here & is now in my office waiting to know how, when & where he can get his Cert. or money. It is seldom the Agent of the Bureau comes here & should he come this claimant cannot tell when to look for him, and would not know of his intended visit to this place & would not know said agent should be seen him. The method of paying colored claimants here, is certainly not what you would consider satisfactory. He requests me to ask that his Certificate & Discharge be sent to some person here, say to the Post-Master - or Surveyor of Customs - or to one of the National Banks - with instructions that the party to whom sent, would notify me, so that I could send word to the claimant.

If this could be done I apprehend that it would be perfectly safe, & much more "satisfactory" to the claimant, asst Treasurer at New York, - I have no interest whatever in the matter, except the saving of trouble & expense

Dear Sir, Having seen a list of names (advertised by you recently in the "Commercial") of colored persons who were soldiers, and that you had their bounty for them &c, I am requested by one Henry Simpson of this place to ask if he is the man, he says he was in Co. C. 109th and that he has never recd. his bounty, and besides there is considerable back pay that he has never recd. Henry is a brown skin man, about 5 ft 9 or 10 inches, or may be six ft. has a slight stoppage in his speech, black or brown eyes, & hair rather longer than ordinary negroes have. He is very poor & is unwilling or unable to go to expense of trip to Lou unless he was sure that the money is for him. If you will let him know you can address him in my care or through me and I will willingly do all I can to assist him.

Sir:-

I have the honor to state that that Preston Barrett, late of Co "A", 100th U.S. C.T. of Terre Haute Ind. whose vouchers for $90. bounty allowed by Treasury Cert No. 577.692, were duly signed, witnessed &c, and sent to the Chief D. O. Washington D.C. Jan 6. '72, has just been ordered by P. G. Overly Eng. Agent, and D. O. for Kentucky, to report at Louisville Ky, and identify himself, and receive his money.

The claimant has written to me (as his vouchers were transmitted to him thro' me,) and represents that he has not the means to go to Louisville Ky, that he could not wish to incur such expense if he had the means, and moreover Knows no one at Louisville, who could possibly identify him.

It is further suggested that his signature to the vouchers, was witnessed by a U. S. Officer at Terre Haute, "Sam'l Magill," Col. Int Rev. 7th Dist. Ind "and another."

It is therefore asked that the Agent and Disbursing Officer at Louisville Ky, be ordered to pay the vouchers by a draft on some U. S. Depository or Asst Treasurer U. S. and transmit the same to the cashier of the 1st or some other Natl Bank at Terre Haute, and have the claimant identify himself to him and that I may be informed of the action taken by your Bureau.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Very Respectfully
